Access and support

Support for people under 65 and
First Nations people under 50.

riac.org.au

RIAC's Access and Support Program is dedicated to helping people under 65, promoting independence and safety in their homes and communities.

Our free service supports diverse groups, including those financially or socially disadvantaged, with dementia or cognitive impairments, living in rural areas, or from diverse cultural backgrounds.

We assist with navigating services, information about the NDIS process, referrals, home help, gathering evidence for NDIS and Centrelink, completing paperwork, and attending appointments.

The program is available across the Local Government Areas of Greater Bendigo, Swan Hill, and Mildura.

Please note that this program is not for individuals with NDIS plans or a case manager. We encourage you to contact your case manager or NDIS for assistance.
