

Sorry, we're not able to take new referrals or help with advocacy and NDIS Appeals right now.

Due to a big rise in people needing our support and not enough people to assist, we have had to make the difficult decision to close our books for intake until 31st of December 2025.

We will assess again at this time and provide further updates.

In the meantime, you can access our website for resources that may assist you:
